Changes to the S.C. Freedom of Information Act (H3352) became law on May 19, 2017. Under the changes, public bodies may charge a rate not to exceed the prevailing commercial rate for copying documents. The rate for searching, retrieving and redacting records will not exceed the hourly wage of the lowest paid employee who has the skill and training to fulfill the request. A deposit of no more than 25 percent of the reasonably anticipated cost may be requested prior to searching for and copying records.
